

ENGLAND LADIES – BISLEY 2008

After a wet and windy week we had some sun for this match although conditions were still tricky with some strong gusts at times. Thanks to Peter Thomson's excellent wind calling, the ladies were able to avoid these gusts and shot extremely well.

We dropped 27 points at 100 yds – same as Scotland but the match was won at 50 metres when we dropped 24 points compared to Scotland 41 and Wales 36.

Scores were:- Michelle Smith 393, Ann Clancy 392. Yvette Edwards 383, Jackie Hay 382 and Sarah Farmer 379.
England 1929, Scotland 1912 and Wales 1889.

ENGLAND JUNIORS – BISLEY 2008-09-03

The team, including the two reserves, shot to a very high standard with James Huckle shooting concurrently for the England Team. The reserves shot alongside and their scores were close to the team scores.
